The Lugar Center Ranked in Top 5% of Think Tanks Nationwide for Third Year

February 7, 2019

WASHINGTON, D.C.- The Lugar Center has been ranked in the top 5% of U.S. think tanks by the Lauder Institute's Think Tanks & Civil Societies Program at the University of Pennsylvania for the third year in a row. According to the 2018 Global Go To Think Tank Index Report, The Lugar Center ranked 76th among 1,872 think tanks in the United States, placing it within the top 5% nationally. Read the 2018 report here.

In 2016, The Lugar Center ranked 73rd, and in 2017, The Lugar Center ranked 74th, placing it in the top 5% of think tanks in the United States. The Lugar Center also was recognized as a "Best New Think Tank" in both the 2014 and 2015 editions of the Global Go Think Tank Index Report.

About The Lugar Center:

Under the leadership of former U.S. Senator Richard Lugar, the 501(c)(3) non-profit Lugar Center is a platform for informed debate and analysis of global issues, including:

● Bipartisan governance,
● Foreign assistance effectiveness and global development,
● Global food security, and
● Nonproliferation of weapons of mass destruction

More information on The Lugar Center can be found at http://www.thelugarcenter.org.